STAMINA'S GAZELLE STAKES.

WHITNEY'S FILLY GIVES OPPONENTS MUCH WEIGHT AND AN EASY BEATING.

Don Enrique Wins the Patchogue Stakes for the Patchogue Stable—Rosimiro Wins from King Cobalt and Bouquet.

New York, June 4.—A card that gave promise of some excellent racing drew a crowd of fully 12,000 persons to Gravesend, but the day did not turn out to be one of profit to the public, as outsiders, in the most cases without support, were the winners. The single exception was in the Gazelle Stakes, the day's feature, which was won by Stamina at odds-on.

Gladys Louise, from the B. & O. Stable, started the trouble for the form players by beating the heavily backed choice, Nasturtia, for the opening race. Dugan was again put up on Nasturtia in preference to T. Koerner, who had ridden the filly and who is supposed to be connected with the stable of W. F. Mathews, who owns Nasturtia. Fred Burlew then put Koerner on Gladys Louise, and the lad had the pleasure of beating out the owner who had turned him down for a more fashionable rider. He was assisted materially by Dugan's slovenly ride on the favorite. He seemed to think he could win when he so desired, and held Gladys Louise too cheaply.

M. Henderson made a bad mess of matters in the steeplechase. The race was for maiden jumpers and nine ran. Malacca, ridden by Henderson, was heavily backed by the smart set of the cross-country contingent, as he had schooled in a manner to mark him a rare good jumping prospect. Malacca was well up when passing the stand for the second time, but when turning into the backstretch Henderson suddenly pulled him up to a walk. It was then seen that the saddle had slipped, but not sufficiently to have caused a rider possessed of the least bit of courage to quit the race. It looked like a piece of rank cowardice on Henderson's part, and those who backed the horse with such confidence were very much chagrined at the outcome. Bannell ran out when in the lead, and after Stellaland had led to the stretch, Noblesse Oblige came along and won from Mark Gumberts after a spirited drive.

It was noted that Don Enrique, carrying the colors of the Patchogue Stable, should win the Patchogue Stakes. But few of those present took the hunch and profited accordingly by the 15 to 1 laid against Don Enrique. Jacobite was looked upon as a real good thing for the race and was backed with great confidence. Parkview, James B. Brady and Dremmer also had some support, but Don Enrique, although conceding to Henderson a few days ago, went from 10 to 1 to 15 to 1. The start contributed somewhat to the defeat of Jacobite, as he broke slowly. The race was between Parkview and Don Enrique, and the latter just got up in a hard drive to win by a head. Jacobite never had clear sailing until the stretch was reached, when he got up to third place.

The tabulated history of the Patchogue Stakes since 1900 is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A. Wt.	Jockey.	Val. Time.
1900	Meehan	114	Maher	1:25 1/2
1901	Himself	103	Wonderly	1:45 1/2
1902	Gameron	108	O'Connor	2:40 1/2
1903	Phoebe	124	Hack	2:10 1/2
1904	Ascension	103	T. Burns	2:25 1/2
1905	Right and True	101	L. Smith	1:15 1/2
1906	Keator	104	W. Knapp	2:10 1/2
1907	Jacobite	102	Preston	1:35 1/2
1908	Don Enrique	100	Delany	2:10 1/2

Before 1901 at 3-4 mile.

Stamina seems to stay out for the three-year-old filly events. She was always at a short price for the Gazelle Stakes today, although there was a strong inclination in some quarters to back Anymona to beat her. The latter led for seven furlongs, but when Dugan called on Stamina, the splendid filly soon took the pace-maker into camp and won in a canter. She was conceding ten pounds to the others and won in a way to proclaim her much better than any other of her age and sex.

The Gazelle Stakes has been run since 1887. Its history since 1900 is given in the table below:

Year.	Winner.	A. Wt.	Jockey.	Val. Time.
1900	Indian Fairy	106	O'Connor	$2,400 1:50
1901	Trigster	106	Odum	2:30 1/2
1902	Blue Girl	124	T. Burns	2:20 1/2
1903	Stolen Moments	113	Gannon	2:25 1/2
1904	Beldame	124	F. O'Neill	3:30 1/2
1905	Tradition	113	W. Davis	2:35 1/2
1906	Flip Flap	121	W. Miller	3:30 1/2
1907	Chart Press	121	J. Martin	4:20 1/2
1908	Stamina	121	E. Dugan	4:40 1/2

Rosimiro, which has shown speed a plenty in all of his races, was the subject of a handily laid bet and backed from 8 to 1 to 6 to 1, led almost throughout to win in a drive from King Cobalt, the top-weight and favorite. The latter did not show his usual speed, but finished gamely. Julia Powell and Bouquet were out for the first time this season. They were fillies of good class last year, but lack of support indicated that they were hardly up to a hard contest. Julia Powell, which has developed into a fine-looking mare, was high, but showed a good turn of early speed and another race or two should fit her. Bouquet ran a game race, beating Cohort for third place in a drive.

Luck favored the long-shot players in the closing race. Had Sundance run straight, she must have won. But she began bearing out on the turn and let the contenders through next to the rail. Occidental and Yankee Daughter then fought it out in a finish so close that it was only guesswork which had won until the numbers went up. Lilypad, the favorite, evidently will not do. She got the lead and the rail when Sundance first ran out, but quit badly.

W. F. Mathews will ship his horses to Montreal tomorrow. Jockeys C. Koerner and T. Koerner will go with the stable.

H. P. Whitney has purchased from C. R. Ellison the mare Yankee Girl for $3,000. The mare will be sent to Brookdale Stud in New Jersey. She is a full sister to Running Water. There is also a yearling sister to the pair. All are bays with very little white about them, but a foal of the same breeding at the farm is a chestnut with four white legs and a big white blaze.

CANADIAN OWNERS THRIVING AT TORONTO.

Take Five Out of Seven Races, Including the Richest Event of the Day.

Toronto, Ont., June 4.—Canadian owners were very much in evidence at Woodbine this afternoon. Five of the seven winners being furnished by local men. Two of these winners bore the colors of Joseph E. Seagram, Seismic, which captured the King's Plate on the opening day, winning the Stanley Produce Stakes, while Sir Galahad won the National Club purse, a selling race, at one mile and a sixteenth. The conditions of the Stanley Produce Stakes are patterned after the Futurity. It is the richest event for Dominion-breds outside of the King's Plate, and is a prize eagerly sought after by Canadian turfmen. Seismic, today's winner, showed himself to be a good colt. He conceded Shihonese twenty pounds in actual weight and beat her out in a canter.

The tabulated history of the Stanley Produce Stakes is given below:

Year.	Winner.	Wt.	Jockey.	Val. Time.
1900	The Provost	120	Ballard	1:40 1/2
1901	John Ruskin	121	Vittore	1:40 1/2
1902	Red Robe	120	Blake	1:38 1/2
1903	Ayrshire	122	Monroe	1:38 1/2
1904	War Whoop	122	Romanelli	1:40 1/2
1905	Slanger	123	J. Walsh	2:25 1/2
1906	Sea Wall	115	McDaniel	2:00 1/2
1907	Seismic	125	C. H. Shillig	2:05 1/2

A majority of the races furnished keen finishes, the winners in four of them being forced to stand long hard drives to win by small margins. Only two favorites won, Seismic and Gold Note being the successful choices. The races were run over a track that was at its best and before one of the largest crowds of the meeting.

In the opening race Guarda fell just as she was making the turn into the homestretch, and Magenta, which was a distant trailer, tumbled over her. Fortunately, neither of the riders was injured, although Hatchett, who had the mount on Magenta, was knocked out for time.

J. W. May won his first purse at the meeting when Please captured the opening race after leading her opponents from end to end.

The first disqualification of the meeting came with the running of the second race, a two-year-old dash in which fifteen horses went to the post. Sight, a Soviet stable and finishing Rise $50 for foot riding, also finished Shilling $50 for not riding Chipmunk out.

Denham, winner of the fifth race, pulled up lame and a report from his stable was that the colt had broken down. Denham was the fastest sprinter ever foaled in Canada and in some of his races he showed sensational speed. He ran a mile at Fort Erie last year in 1:38 1/2.

S. C. Hildreth wired for jockey Dave Nicol to come to Gravesend to ride Montgomery in a stake on Saturday. Nicol was unable to go, as he has made arrangements to ride in three stakes at Woodbine on that day. He is riding in great form just now and had seven mounts this afternoon.

Several stables were shipped to Montreal tonight, among them those of Maurice Walsh, J. W. Burt, schell, James Boden, M. L. Hayman and Burlew & O'Neill. James McLaughlin ships his stable tomorrow night and R. L. Thomas, Woods Garth and P. M. Clivill ship Saturday night. In all about 300 horses will ship from here to Montreal.

Christopher Fitzgerald will lead out a ruling in the Montreal case tomorrow and it is understood that it will be a sensational one. At least two owners and one jockey will come in for official censure. Jockey Bergen left tonight for New York.

DERBY WINNER'S PECULIAR OWNER.

London, June 4.—Chevalier Ginstrelli's ambition for eight years has been to win the Derby with a foal of Signorina. He has a great personal affection for his animals. Even yesterday, instead of waiting to receive congratulations of his friends, he left the inclosure to see that Signorinetta was properly attended to. He refused a very large offer for Signorina, the dam of Signorinetta, as a two-year-old, declaring that no money could buy her. Yet the first twelve years of her career at the stud were a heart-breaking disappointment. Year after year she either was barren or threw dead foals. Her first foal that lived was Signorino, which ran third in the Derby of 1905. Then came the Derby winner of yesterday.

Signor Ginstrelli's unconventional ways and unorthodox methods of training and preparing his horses often have been the subject of laughter among the professional trainers at Newmarket, although he, personally, is popular.

In Daily Racing Form's Epsom Derby table of winners yesterday there was an error, as W. Bullock and not Rickaby was the rider of Signorinetta. The time of the Derby was 2:39 1/2.

MEXICAN DERBY WELL ENDOWED FOR YEARS.

City of Mexico, June 4.—The Mexican federal government has guaranteed $250,000, in sums of $25,000 annually for ten years, toward the support of the National Derby, the first installment to be paid in 1910, the date of the celebration of the centennial festival. The matter has been arranged in a formal contract just made with the Jockey Club.

Nominations for the first Derby must be made by December 1, of this year. The conditions of the Derby have already been announced, but it is stated by those who should be well informed that these may be altered in some particulars.

The support pledged by the government has aroused much interest among horsemen here and, though the date now set for the close of nominations is only six months off, prospects for a creditable list of nominators are most encouraging.

SHAW'S RIDING DOES NOT SATISFY.

New York, June 4.—Willie Shaw is in disfavor with his employers, it is said. His bad ride on Rye in a race won by Rockstone at Belmont Park recently is believed to have been the cause of his troubles. When Notter was put up on Roseben on Monday the rumor spread that Shaw would do no more riding for the Farrell-Johnson stable. Shaw is under contract to D. Sullivan, the owner of Rye, but it is reported that he will soon be released. Since his return from Germany Shaw has apparently lost much of his old form. He has been accused of faint-heartedness.

VETERAN PETER WIMMER IN A NEW ROLE.

Lexington, Ky., June 4.—Peter Wimmer has assumed his duties as manager of Captain W. Harry Brown's Senorita farm, Vice Max Samuelson, resigned because of bad health.

SATISFACTORY RACING AT OAKLAND TRACK.

Stanley Fay Redeems Himself and Defeats Glorio and Security with Ease.

Oakland, Cal., June 4.—Stanley Fay easily reversed his previous running with Security and Glorio in the Fairfield Handicap at Oakland today. Walker's superior-class three-year-old went on unhampered after getting into his stride and disposed of the formidable opposition engaged in the race with ease. Unexpectedly liberal odds of 11 to 5 were laid against the winner, which at one time in his career had led the redoubtable Melick home in a mile run in 1:38 flat.

Although six favorites, every one of the ring-made variety and at short prices, were beaten, the best horses were uniformly successful and plentifully supported.

Jockey Walsh, through no fault of his own, proved a conspicuous failure in the saddle during the afternoon, being beaten on no less than five of these warm first choices in succession.

Brookleaf, the Applegate entry in the third, was kicked while at the post and was virtually eliminated as a contender. Sir Brillar failed to stay, but lasted out to finish second. Glorio proved unequal to the occasion in the feature race and this applies also to Ed Davis and Bye Bye II. In the last two races.

Jockey Kirschbaum was forced to cancel his riding engagements for the day on account of illness.

Harry Stover, manager of the Butte Jockey Club, leaves for Butte tomorrow.

It is thought the Montana city's coming meeting of sixty days will be the best in its history. More than 300 of the local horses will participate. New Orleans and the middle west will also be liberally represented.

F. Dealy and H. Mack will campaign their horses at Seattle. K. LeSeuer will race at Butte.

G. H. Keene is a recent arrival from Kentucky. While at the farm the former crack two-year-old Raconteur was taken up and put into active training. Borges and Raconteur will form the nucleus of Keene's eastern string this summer.

The stewards have not yet concluded their investigation into the real ownership of Tommy Ahearn and Mrs. O'Farrell.

C. C. McCafferty intends to take in the Butte meeting. The following jockeys are slated to ride there: J. McIntyre, C. Ross, Borel, Post, Kirschbaum, Stuart, Fisher, Heatherton, E. Sullivan, Charbonneau, F. Hildreth, C. Miller, Pendergast and Clifford.

R. R. Rice purchased Mandator from W. Walker today.

Jockey Eddie Lynch returned from New York today, whither he had gone to ride for W. Du Bois.

EXPECT OMAHA YOUNGSTERS TO MAKE GOOD.

Lexington, Ky., June 4.—Major P. P. Johnston, owner of Montrose Farm and president of the National Trotting Association, has turned over the management of the thoroughbreds on his farm to his sons, Preston and Fayette, while he divides his time between his trotters and the duties of his office as assistant general of the Kentucky State Guard. Lately he has not had much time for the trotters. The "night riders" have kept the state's soldiers busy and the major (he prefers the title major to that of general, because he won the former by hard fighting during the Civil War) has been spending about twenty hours out of every twenty-four in his office at Frankfort.

His sons, however, are a pair of hustling young men with good business heads, and it is not hazardous much to venture that they will make money out of the stallion Omaha and the twenty mares and produce they have taken over. Fayette, the younger, has been directing the breeding of the thoroughbreds the past two seasons and has been successful to the extent of ninety per cent. living foals. But whether his ideas about mating will result in first-class racers is yet to be determined. He will find out shortly, however, for the first of the get of Omaha, now two-year-olds, have just been brought to the Kentucky Association track from the farm. They have been bred by the father, the track under the direction of Preston Johnston and in the care of trainer Joe Chinn since early spring, and the purpose now is to determine which and how many are fit to go to the races. The likely ones will be sent to Latonia and the others will be sent back to the farm and sold off to traders.

Johnston has about twelve horses at the track, but they are not all two-year-olds. They all are maidens, and only one has ever been raced. That is the four-year-old chestnut gelding General Early, by Frankfort—Miss Helvete. Another four-year-old is the brown filly Jane Randolph, by Frankfort—Cito. "I do not think much of the Frankfort," said Preston Johnston a day or two ago, as he sat thinking the won of the two-year-olds. "The breeding is all right, of course, but I have no fancy for a sire that was not a proven race horse. In this day and time pedigree without individual merit, whether it be in horses or men, does not call for much in the shape of cash. I would much rather breed our thoroughbred mares to a trotting stallion or a saddle stallion all day if necessary and Frankfort. I have not been able to buy the kind of a riding horse I want, so I have set about to breed one to suit me. I mated four thoroughbred mares with a saddle stallion last year and got three foals. I will now breed the fillies, when they are old enough, to another type of saddle horse, and I think I will have what I want in that direction. I do not believe there is to be found in any type a better general purpose horse than one produced from the mating of a trotting stallion with a thoroughbred mare. The buyers for the United States Army know their value and they snap them up quickly wherever they are found. We raise two or three such every year and we do not have to keep them beyond the two-year-old year. We get $150 for them at that age and it pays. The best hunter we ever had on the place was by a trotter out of a thoroughbred mare. He could take a five foot fence with 160 pounds up and never touch a rail. He, of course, was not speedy enough for steeplechasing, but when he came to following the hounds he would be there all day if necessary and in at the death with the next man's mount. He was equally as good on the road in the shafts of a barouche. But about these young racers by Omaha, I believe they are going to make good. They have been showing us half miles around 50 and 51 and about next Tuesday or Wednesday we are going to ask them the vital question. If they haven't improved any over that they don't go to the races—not yet, at any rate."

The other ten horses in the string are: Edgar Hill, br. g. 3, by Buckeye Leaf—Leita Kent.

Little Fitz, ch. g. 3, by His Lordship—Forray.

Phenomenist, ch. g. 3, by His Lordship—Cito.

Octahedron, ch. w. stallion by Al Frisco—Exlex.

Outset, ch. c. 2, by Omaha—Onset.

Orgy (half brother to Sinner Simon), br. c. 2, by Omaha—Mary Banjo.

Oratress, br. f. 2, by Maddison—Brooklet.

Oakum, b. c. 2, by Omaha—Byt.

Oath, b. c. 2, by Omaha—Neon.

Oline, ch. f. 2, by Al Frisco—De La Croix.

IMPROVEMENT AT LATONIA.

GOOD WEATHER AND A DRYING-OUT TRACK BRING ABOUT WELL-CONTESTED RACING.

Kercheval Defeats The Minks in the Principal Race of the Day—Apache Outruns Czar and Chulita.

Cincinnati, O., June 4.—Today's racing at Latonia resulted in frequent upsets. Not a single favorite landed at front except Anne McGee, and it was a close call for her. Poor riding and deceptive track conditions were responsible for this. Race-goers had expected to find the track muddy and based their calculations on that belief. By dint of constant harrowing the track was whipped into fair condition by the time the first race was called, that is, it was dry enough on top to afford safe footing. But underneath it was dead and soggy and there were several soft places in it along the backstretch. Under these circumstances excellent time was made in the different races. Clearing weather and an excellent program, with a mile handicap as a feature, drew out a fairly large attendance. It was a good betting card, and the volume of speculation showed improvement over that of yesterday. The "take" being highly satisfactory to the management. The finishes were close in all the races.

The Minks was made an overwhelming favorite in the mile handicap over Kercheval, despite the latter's good showing at Louisville. That the latter was clearly best was evidenced today, for Kercheval was away in a tangle and many lengths in the rear, whereas The Minks broke with an advantage. The speedy Zal set a fast pace, closely attended by Mortiboy, to the stretch turn, where The Minks moved into command, but under strong urging Kercheval closed a big gap and, finishing gamely through the stretch, won by a half length. Zal again showed early speed, but tired fast after going three-quarters, enabling Mortiboy to take third place without much effort.

The principal upset came in the closing race when Chulita was beaten out by Apache and Czar. During the early racing Powers appeared to be trying to keep Apache to run out by keeping Chulita close to him and forcing him wide. These tactics caused the Labold filly to tire fast when approaching the stretch turn and Apache gamely dashed into the lead and stayed just long enough to stall off the fast-coming Czar.

Jockey Edmiston threw away the purse in the opening race on E. T. Ship, Garters winning by a small margin. Hughes, in the second, led through out and easily downed Hostile Hyphen, which had been the closest contender throughout.

Barney Schreiber's Sawward was away with an advantage in the third race that the others could not overcome and she won after a mild drive to outstay Malcom.

Jockey Hufham, who was injured by a fall in a steeplechase at Louisville and considered seriously hurt, was at the track showing slight signs of his recent injuries. He will go to Canada, where he will ride.

Milton Young, who was in California during the winter, was among today's visitors. He stated that W. Walsh is the greatest lightweight rider in the country.

A. Bellow and S. S. Tracey arrived today from New Orleans, each with four horses, and F. S. Kelly came in from Nashville with six.

RHODORA AND SIGNORINETTA.

Richard Croker's crack filly, Rhodora, winner of the Thousand Guineas, and Chevalier E. Ginstrelli's now famous winner of the Derby, Signorinetta, will probably measure strides in the Oaks at Epsom today. Two days ago it would not have occurred to anyone interested in racing to think of the latter as having even a remote chance to win, while Rhodora was deemed as great a certainty as there can be in racing. The unexpected outcome of the Derby has suddenly invested the Oaks with decided interest, and Italy now has a chance to humble Ireland that was undreamed of last week.

In respect to their future engagements Signorinetta is in more events of importance than Rhodora. The latter is only in the Atlantic Stakes and St. George Stakes at the Liverpool summer meeting in July, and the Ascot Gold Cup, Hardwicke Stakes, Fifth Biennial Stakes and Fifth Biennial Stakes at Ascot. Signorinetta has nominations to the Grand Prix de Paris, Doncaster, St. Leger, Limekiln Stakes, Jockey Club Stakes and Great Foot Stakes at Newmarket, Champion Breeders' Foal Stakes at Derby, Eclipse Stakes at Sandown Park and Royal Stakes at Newbury. In none of these do the two fillies meet, but both are in the Hardwicke Stakes of 1909.

TRANCE A FILLY OF MUCH QUALITY.

That good filly Trance has won five and a half races, four and a half of them stakes, for George Odum since he gave Tom Griffin $3,000 for the filly which Griffin considered to be on the verge of a breakdown. The half race is her dead heat for the Elmhurst Stakes at Jamaica with Fitz Herbert directly after she had gone to Odum. Here is the record of Trance's doings since her sale:

Race.	Wgt.	Track.	Dist.	Time.	Won.
Elmhurst	103	Jamaica	5 f	1:00	$ 977.50
Rosedale	114	Jamaica	4 f	54	1,765.00
Suffolk	109	Jamaica	5 f	1:00	1,525.00
Bouquet	100	Belmont	5 f	1:00	1,395.00
Gaiety	122	Belmont	4 f	51	1,785.00
Purse	114	Gravesend	5 f	1:00	810.00

Total (6) $8,737.50

*Dead heat with Fitz Herbert.

FRENCH PARI-MUTUEL PAYS 194 TO 1.

There was a surprise in a selling race at St. Cloud, near Paris, on Monday, May 25, when Cyrenos, the winner of the Prix des Myosotis, brought in 1,942 francs for 10 at the pari-mutuel. Parisians have not had many such big prices lately. The runner-up, Diane II., was favorite at a little over even money, but she was beaten easily by two lengths. The winner belonged to M. Edmond Beer, and was ridden by the apprentice H. Childs. The horse was claimed after the race for $1,500 by M. H. Rigaud. This price at the pari-mutuel is so far the record of the year.

PLUNGER JOHNSON IS "STRONG" AGAIN.

New York, June 4.—Dave Johnson, after a long spell of misfortune, is in his stride again. It appears that Johnson beat six races at Belmont Park last Saturday, beginning the day with a $500 wager on Live Wire, which took the opening event. On Monday Johnson won a good bet on Roseben, also cashing big wagers on Celt, James B. Brady and Connaught Ranger. Tuesday he scored heavily over Trance, Bayonet and McCarter, and has had no serious disaster since.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Lesbia, the winter favorite for the English Oaks, has been scratched and will not figure as against Rhodora at Epsom today.

There is a promising half-sister to Herculeid being made ready for the eastern jumping races.

She is Harpist II, in Colonel Robert Neville's string.

Walter Miller, who was all the rage in New York last season, has not attracted much attention so far.

He had his first mounts on Monday, but was hardly noticed by the crowd.

Palemon, four-year-old bay colt by Sandringham—

Queen d'Or, is suffering with a spread foot and probably will not face the barrier until the Seattle meeting is well under way.

The Mist, D. A. Ross's six-year-old mare which has proven more than an ordinarily successful breadwinner during her career on the turf, is being galloped along after a temporary lay-off due to an injured foot.

The poor showing of Keep Moving in the Latonia

Derby is accounted for by the explanation that she had a wrenched back. Mose Goldblatt did not wish to start her, but was persuaded that the injury would not affect her running.

A Berlin cable states that the Union Club, or

Jockey Club, of that city, has withdrawn the license of the Canadian Jockey, Harry Lewis, attached to the stable of H. Brown, Jr., granted at the request of Baron Oppenheim, for whom he had contracted to ride. The jockey, it is said, went to America for a holiday trip and failed to return to fill his contract.

He may also be barred from the American tracks.

ina, much the best, was rated to the head of the stretch, from where she came away easily and won in a flash. Anonyma was as easily second best and, after setting the early pace, stayed well in the stretch run. Laughing Eyes, outrun early, but coming up at the finish. Half Sovereign showed speed, but ran as though short and will surely improve. Wild Refrain was never a contender.

Winner—Ch. c by Pontiac—XII Desperandum (trained by F. C. Frisbie).

Went to post at 4:21. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Rosmiro raced to his best form and, setting a fast pace throughout, just lasted long enough to withstand the game rush of King Cobalt after having raced Julia Powel into defeat. King Cobalt, outrun early, was forced to go to the outside and finished with rare gameness through a long drive. Bouquet was in close quarters throughout and, after a hard race, outfinished Cobalt. The latter showed speed, but when he had made his game race, Rialto was cut off next to the rail when going to the first turn and had no chance afterward. Julia Powel showed speed, but raced as though short and should do presently. Question Mark had no chance at the start.

Scratched—75104² Arasee, 112; 75104 Select, 95.

Overweights—Rosmiro, 4 pounds.

Winner—Ch. c. by Pontiac—Nil Desperandum (trained by F. C. Frisbie).

Winner—Ch. f. by Montana—Lisanne (trained by J. Healey).

Went to post at 4:53. At post 1 minute. Start poor. Won driving; second and third the same. Occidental, never far from the front, was lucky in finding an opening next to the inner rail in the stretch and just lasted long enough after a long drive. Yankee Daughter ran an impressive race and, coming with a rush in the final furlong, would have won in another stride. Sundance showed a fine burst of early speed, in the stretch but was unable to keep up all through the last sixteenth. Lilypad went wide in the stretch when she had a good winning chance.
